

Lawyer Profiles

Alexandra's practice focuses on corporate and securities litigation in the civil and regulatory contexts. Prior to joining the firm in 2017, Alexandra served as a judicial law clerk to the judges of the Divisional and Superior Courts in Toronto, including Commercial List judges.

While in law school, Alexandra was an active mooter. She successfully participated in the Leners Cup, Cassels Brock Cup, Fox Intellectual Property Moot, and Winkler Class Actions Moot. In addition, she volunteered at the Small Claims Court with Pro Bono Law Ontario, provided research assistance to several law professors, worked on the Class Actions project at the Law Commission of Ontario, and interned at SOCAN (Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers of Canada) as part of the Osgoode Intellectual Property intensive program.

Prior to law school, Alexandra worked in the areas of information management, access to information and privacy with the Ontario Public Service.

Speaking Engagements & Publications

Co-Author, Should OBSI Have the Power to Make Binding Orders?, PCMA E-News Brief, January 30, 2017

Co-Author, A Fine Balance: The Characteristics of Effective AND Enforceable Restrictive Covenants, PCMA E-News Brief, December 12, 2017

Alexandra Grishanova

Associate

Direct: 416.217.0859

Fax: 416.217.0220

Email: agrishanova@cmblaw.ca

Accolades

Second Place Oralist, Winkler Class Actions Moot, 2016

Best Factum, Fox Intellectual Property Moot, 2015

Second Place Team, Leners Cup Moot, 2013

Charles Edward Woodrow Award for Academic Excellence, 2015

Goodmans LLP Scholarship, 2014

Associations

Member of the Advocates' Society

Education

Called to the Bar – 2017

J.D., Osgoode Hall Law School – 2016

B.A and M.L.I.S. (Library and Information Science), St. Petersburg State University of Culture and Art (Russia) – 2001

A.A. (Journalism), Georgia Perimeter College, Atlanta, USA – 2003